Office Order

In order to efficiently conduct various activities at the college, the restructuring of the following committees has been ordered. The coordinators and members of these committees will complete the tasks as assigned and submit report as required in a timely manner.

1. All committee coordinators will promptly organize meetings for their respective committees and present their work plan.
2. The committee will conduct meetings every month, review progress and submit written reports twice a month for the principal's review.
3. Each coordinator will maintain a register detailing their committee's activities, meetings, progress and success rates, which will be presented for discussion during the monthly meetings.
4. Any notice or communication issued by a coordinator, officer or advisor will not be valid without the principal's signature.
5. Apart from discipline as stated in the order, all other recognized committee members will also support and participate in various college programs as needed.
6. Negligence of any kind will be considered a violation of state government orders, and the entire committee will be held responsible for it.
Information regarding this will be communicated at higher level.
